

HB 1996 - DIGEST

Provides that the insurance code does not apply to private ambulance services that solicit membership subscriptions, accept membership applications, charge membership fees, and furnish prepaid or discounted ambulance services, including both ground and air ambulance services, to subscription members and designated members of their household.